

Spooky Halloween

Once upon a time on a scary Halloween day pitch black there was a witch that loved black spider. She wasn't just mean she was also ugly. She lived in the cabin in the mysterious wood, because she had a long nose with big buttons on the nose and the nails in a from of claws. When people saw her they were all scared. They where scared of her because she was unfriendly. Thirty first of October early morning she had started a magic potion for kids to have bad note.

she would dip candy's in and give them to the kids and they would some bad notes in school.

"Time to go to school " said Ashton and Bradley's mom.

So they went half way there they saw smoke coming out the woods they decided to go see what was wrong.

When they go to the witch is house.

They saw the smoke was coming from inside so they decided to go in.

There was so much smoke in the house they couldn't see nothing, because they of all the smokes.

By accident Ashton step on a spiders so all the spider's decided to attack Ashton.

Bradley took the magic potion and thought some the spiders.

They started to have some pimple.

Ashton and Bradley left to go to school.

